Abstract Section:

• Summarizes article

• Includes Keywords

Introduction:

• Presents the Problem

➤ Background Information

➤ Explains why research is being done

Hypothesis:

• States the Problem

➤ Sometimes included in the Introduction
Methods Section:

• Tells how research was done
  ➢ Number of participants
  ➢ Equipment Used
  ➢ Procedure

Results Section:

• Summarizes the Data

• Includes Tables, Charts, and/or Graphs
Discussion:

• Evaluates the Results
  ➢ Explains how research proved Hypothesis
  ➢ May be included within Results section

References:

List of Sources used

Useful for locating additional material